

PROCEDURE FOR APPLICATION FOR NZSTA MEMBERSHIP UNDER THE AGREEMENT FOR THE MUTUAL RECOGNITION OF PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION CREDENTIALS 2008

These instructions apply to ASHA certificate holders, certified members of SAC, RCSLT and SPA and full members of IASLT applying for NZSTA membership under the Agreement for the Mutual Recognition of Professional Association Credentials (MRA) 2008.

1. Please read all instructions before completing and submitting your application to NZSTA.
2. Any questions should be directed to the NZSTA National Office. Alternatively see the MRA webpage <http://www.speechtherapy.org.nz/page/membership/mra/> for additional information.
3. Individuals who hold certification/full membership in speech-language pathology/speech language therapy by the American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA), Speech-Language & Audiology Canada (SAC), the Irish Association of Speech Language Therapists (IASLT), the Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists (RCSLT), and the Speech Pathology Association of Australia Limited (Speech Pathology Australia) are eligible to use the Application for NZSTA Membership Under MRA when applying for membership with the New Zealand Speech-Language Therapists' Association (NZSTA).
4. All applicants must review the requirements under MRA and determine if they meet the criteria. Applicants who do not meet the criteria under MRA may still be eligible to apply for membership of NZSTA through the Qualifications Approval Process. See <http://www.speechtherapy.org.nz/nzsta-membership/qualifications-approval-process> for more information.
5. All applicants must complete the entire application form, including the Consent and Declaration section. Failure to complete the entire application will result in the application being rejected.
6. Full payment of $625 (in New Zealand Dollars), must be submitted with the application. Incomplete payment will result in the application being rejected.
7. All applicants must read and agree to abide by the NZSTA Principles and Rules of Ethics. This document can be accessed from the NZSTA website at <http://www.speechtherapy.org.nz/about-nzsta/ethics>.
8. All applicants must request a letter of good standing from their Home Association attesting that they:
  - a. hold current certification/membership (i.e., are a practising member of the profession)
  - b. are in good standing (i.e. have paid the fees for the Home Association and have no outstanding complaints or disciplinary proceedings against them).
9. The letter of good standing must be dated and must be obtained no more than one year prior to submission for NZSTA membership. Letters dated more than one year prior to submission will not be considered and a current letter will be requested. All letters of good standing must be sent directly from the applicant's Home Association to NZSTA, and must be on association letterhead with an original signature of an authorised representative of the Home Association.

10. Applicants with speech-language therapy degree qualifications completed in a language other than English, or those for whom English is their second language must attach an original copy of IELTS “Academic” results. Applicants must have a minimum average score of 8.0 across each of the four categories with a minimum score of 8.5 in the spoken module.
11. The following additional requirements must be met and evidence provided as specified below:

ASHA

ASHA certification holders: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of 1000 hours of speech-language therapy practice within the past 5 years. Speech-language therapy practice is defined as being engaged in the activities of speech-language therapy as a practitioner, administrator, educator, researcher or any combination of these and receiving remuneration for those activities. ASHA certification holders who graduated with a master’s degree in speech-language therapy pathology prior to 1998: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of competency in dysphagia assessment, diagnosis and management, either through evidence of specific courses or previous experience. Please see Guide to Evidence of Dysphagia Competency on the NZSTA website.

SAC

Clinically certified members of SAC: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of having completed one year of supervised clinical speech language therapy practice in the country of certification. Clinical practice is defined as no less than 36 weeks of full time clinical practice of at least 30 hours per-week paid employment. Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of 1000 hours of speech-language therapy practice within the past 5 years. Speech-language therapy practice is defined as being engaged in the activities of speech-language therapy as a practitioner, administrator, educator, researcher or any combination of these and receiving remuneration for those activities. Clinically certified members of SAC certified prior to 1999: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of competency in dysphagia assessment, diagnosis and management, either through evidence of specific courses or previous experience. Please see NZSTA Guide to Evidence of Dysphagia Competency on the NZSTA website.

IASLT

Full members of IASLT: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of 1000 hours of speech-language therapy practice within the past 5 years. Speech-language therapy practice is defined as being engaged in the activities of speech-language therapy as a practitioner, administrator, educator, researcher or any combination of these and receiving remuneration for those activities. Full members of IASLT certified prior to 1999: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of competency in dysphagia assessment, diagnosis and management, either through evidence of specific courses or previous experience. Please see Guide to Evidence of Dysphagia Competency on the NZSTA website.

RCSLT

Certified members of RCSLT: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of 1000 hours of speech-language therapy practice within the past 5 years. Speech-language therapy practice is defined as being engaged in the activities of speech-language therapy as a practitioner, administrator,

---

To be certified by an appropriate person – Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public. <sup>1</sup> ‘Certified evidence’ is a “certified true copy”. For more information see point 12.

educator, researcher or any combination of these and receiving remuneration for those activities. For certification members who graduated prior to 1998, certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of competency in dysphagia assessment, diagnosis and management, either through evidence of specific courses or previous experience. Please see Guide to Evidence of Dysphagia Competency on the NZSTA website.

Speech Pathology Australia

Certified members of Speech Pathology Australia: Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of having completed one year of supervised clinical speech language therapy practice in the country of certification. Clinical practice is defined as no less than 36 weeks of full time clinical practice of at least 30 hours per-week paid employment. Certified<sup>1</sup> evidence of 1000 hours of speech-language therapy practice within the past 5 years. Speech-language therapy practice is defined as being engaged in the activities of speech-language therapy as a practitioner, administrator, educator, researcher or any combination of these and receiving remuneration for those activities.

12. A Certified<sup>1</sup>true copy is a photocopy which has been certified as a true copy by either a Solicitor/Lawyer/Notary or Justice of the Peace. Original document(s) which have been altered cannot be certified. Please note:- The Solicitor/Lawyer/Notary or Justice of the Peace must see the original document(s) and must provide the following on the copy:
  - a. PRINT his/her Name and Position/Title (must be a Solicitor/Lawyer/Notary or Justice of the Peace)
  - b. The date the certified true copy was made
  - c. The address and telephone number of the person certifying the document(s)
  - d. The signature of the person certifying the document(s)
  - e. A stamp or wording indicating "This photocopy is a true copy of the original document which has not been altered in any way", or wording of similar effect.
13. Applicants are advised to make copies of all original documents before sending these to the address on the application form.
14. Once membership is granted by NZSTA, the successful applicant will have the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same responsibilities, obligations and restrictions as all other NZSTA members. These include maintenance of membership through annual payment of fees, adherence to the Code of Ethics and participation in continuing professional development.
15. Should NZSTA membership lapse, applicants wishing to reinstate their application will be required to do so according to the policies and procedures in effect at the time of the new application.