

New Zealand Speech-language Therapists' Association

Te Kāhui Kaiwhakatikatika Reo Kōrero o Aotearoa

NZSTA Ambassador Award

According to the Mc Millan Dictionary, “an Ambassador is someone who is considered to represent an activity, organisation or company and is held in high regard to represent the values of the organisation. “

The NZSTA would like to recognise the work of a member who epitomises all things New Zealand Speech language therapy represents and values:

- Work in partnership and with integrity
- Be leaders in the field of communication and swallowing
- Be person and whanau centred, working with respect and humility
- Provide an equitable, excellent service

The person who will receive this award, will show high professional integrity, strive to advocate for the profession and for the clients to whom we provide services.

The person will demonstrate initiative and leadership abilities in activities that may raise the awareness of communication and swallowing disabilities in our communities and within their work environments.

The person may also demonstrate dynamic and effective ways of delivering SLT services in NZ

Nominations should be lodged with appropriate documentation in the form of 2 or more of the following :

- ◆ Referees/ nomination
- ◆ Consumer feedback or testimonial
- ◆ Evidence of awareness campaign/ media attention
